

OUTSTANDING PANEL STRENGTH MEETS FULL-BED ACCESSIBILITY

Prop rods (included) lock the cover fully open for full access to the cargo bed — with no cover removal necessary.

The REV Box (available separately) creates a custom space behind the cab to confine and organize smaller cargo.

HARD FOLDING TONNEAU COVER BY REV®

Ready for demanding everyday work duty, the Hard Folding Tonneau Cover by REV®¹ features a folding design with ³/₄-inch-thick panels rated to hold up to 400 pounds¹. The sleek design offers a neat, integrated look while leaving stake pockets fully accessible. A long list of features set it apart from other designs:

- An enhanced dual-action tailgate seal feature allows the tailgate to close with the cover up or down
- In addition to full stake pocket access in open or closed positions, the ultra-versatile design works with tie-downs, bed rails, bed extenders and bedliners
- Rugged synthetic hinges and seals offer excellent resistance to weather
- Included prop rods lock the cover fully open for full cargo bed access, with no need to remove the cover
- A concealed latch system offers quick-release convenience and automatically locks the closed panels — simply lock the tailgate to secure the cover

REV® MEGA BOX

Further enhance your truck's capability by adding a Mega Box for your Hard Folding Tonneau Cover by REV®¹. It can hold up to 250 pounds (evenly distributed). It's fully collapsible, allowing full access to the truck's bed, and is an ideal solution for your tools and equipment. (Available exclusively with Hard Folding Tonneau Cover by REV®.)
